Format for the assessment

The examination will be resource-based.

The examination questions and Resource Booklet will focus on urbanisation, urban settlements, and urban growth.

Some resource materials (eg maps, text, photographs, models, graphs, tables and cartoons) related to this theme will be provided, to assist candidates within this geographic context.

Candidates will:

- be required to complete questions that involve selecting, extracting, analysing, processing, predicting, justifying, and presenting information
- be required to include relevant original visuals that will enhance their answers
- be expected to demonstrate understanding of a range of geographic perspectives, and to use their geographic knowledge, skills, ideas, and understanding to support their answers.

Candidates should use coloured pencils in their diagrams / maps.

Annotations on these diagrams / maps must be in pen.

Any written responses done in pencil will not be eligible for reconsideration.
