INSTRUCTIONS

The materials in Resource Booklet 93401R will enable you to become familiar with the theme and contexts of this examination. You must specifically refer to information in the resource booklet in your answers.

You are advised to spend the first hour of the examination carefully reading the resource materials, and then to spend 40 minutes answering EACH question.

Read the three questions on page 3 carefully. You should answer ALL three questions.

Make notes on planning pages 4, 10, and 16 of this booklet that will help you write your responses. These notes will not be marked. The questions on page 3 are repeated on their respective planning pages.

Begin your answer for Question One on page 5, for Question Two on page 11, and for Question Three on page 17.

QUESTION ONE (8 marks)

By 2015, the United Nations hopes that the eight main Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) will have been largely met worldwide. However, for some countries this will pose a problem.

Fully justify which ONE of the Millennium Development Goals you believe is the most important for these countries to concentrate on.

Include specific information from the resource booklet about two or more countries in your answer.

You MUST include relevant original visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams, to support your answer.

Use page 4 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question One on page 5.

QUESTION TWO (8 marks)

“The world possesses the resources and knowledge to ensure that even the poorest countries can be empowered to achieve the MDGs.”

Ban Ki-Moon, Secretary General UN, The MDG Report (2010).

Critically evaluate why some countries, places, or regions have made greater progress towards achieving the Millennium Development Goals than others.

Your answer can be EITHER in diagrammatic OR essay format, OR a combination of both (a diagrammatic answer could extend across more than one page).

Include specific information from the resource booklet in your answer.

You MUST include knowledge and ideas you have gained from your studies in Geography.

Use page 10 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question Two on page 11.

QUESTION THREE (8 marks)

Achieving these Millennium Development Goals incurs a cost, not only monetary (estimated to be $40–$60 billion per year), but also social and environmental. Are the costs worth the benefits?

Critically analyse this statement, referring to different perspectives.

Include specific information from the resource booklet in your answer.

You may include knowledge and ideas you have gained from your studies in Geography.

You MUST include relevant original visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams, to support your answer.

Use page 16 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question Three on page 17.
