PART THREE: Impromptu Performance Task

2.00 pm Friday 20 November 2009

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE SUPERVISOR

After the completion of Part Two of this examination, read the following:

Part Three. Here is the prescribed Impromptu Performance Task.

You are to present a scene involving TWO new characters of contrasting attitudes and physicality that could have taken place as a result of your text-based performance in Part One. The characters must NOT have appeared in the source text, but they may have been mentioned in or implied by the source text.

You must play both characters. You should aim to use elements of drama clearly through physical action as well as voice, and you should be able to explain your use of these elements in your justification to the camera.

You have TWO minutes to plan your performance. You may use pen and paper to plan, but not in your justification to the camera.

The scene is not to exceed TWO minutes in length.

Give Card 93304C to the candidate. Take it back after TWO minutes.
