

New Zealand Scholarship Drama 2007

WAITING-ROOM RULES

Information for:

- all Candidates
- the Waiting-room Supervisor
- Drama teachers

The school will provide a Waiting-room for candidates, adjacent to but out of sight and earshot of the Performance Space(s). All candidates may use the same Waiting-room.

1. There will be no opportunity to leave the Waiting-room during the examination. The last candidate may have to wait for an hour and a half to be examined. Candidates should visit the toilet before going to the Waiting-room.
2. Candidates are to be examined in Attendance Roll order. The “Working Copy of the Attendance Roll” will be available in the Waiting-room.
3. Candidates must be present at 9.10 a.m. and must obey the instructions given by the Examination Supervisor.
4. No candidate will be admitted to the Waiting-room and permitted to perform after the first candidate has completed their performance and been dismissed.
5. Candidates who have performed are not to return to the Waiting-room or communicate in any way with candidates yet to perform. This would be regarded as a breach of the rules.
6. No cell phones are permitted in the Waiting-room or Performance Space(s).
7. Copies of the “Instructions to Candidates” will be available in the Waiting-room for candidates to read.
8. Candidates may use their waiting time to warm up.
9. The Supervisor will maintain order in the Waiting-room.
10. Candidates must NOT return to the Waiting-room once they have completed their performances.
